Build Your Career - Break All Barriers!

Youth Exchange

Hiiumaa | Estonia 20-27 Oct 2017

Summary

Countries: Estonia, Slovakia, Italy, Greece and Turkey

Location: Island of Hiiumaa, Estonia

Dates: 20-27th of October 2017

Hosting organization: SARA NGO

The main aim of this Youth Exchange is to create a platform where participants can discover their potential as entrepreneurs and get motivated to build up a career of their imagination.

The project intends to fight with youth unemployment and empower the youth that have obtained an education and are still unemployed; those that have left school early; and youngsters that have a background of experiencing social, economical or geographical obstacles.

The Youth Exchange will be very practical and include a good amount of mutual sharing - all ideas, personal stories, attitudes, techniques and tools will be welcomed to explore Entrepreneurship as a way to prosperous career; and to figure out ways to decrease youth unemployment in participants' origin countries.

Learn and share!

Participants of this project are expected to facilitate/co-facilitate, share and present topics within the theme of the project. We aim to create a mutual learning environment where everyone can share and learn at the same time. The project is geared towards young people with fewer opportunities and the new comers to this field.

Unforgettable intercultural experience!

The project aims to provide a unforgettable and rich intercultural experience where people from different countries and culture bring their touch and insights to the project creating a synergy of learning and new friendships.

Discover Tallinn and the Island of Hiiumaa!

Participants will have opportunities to visit the capital Tallinn and discover the Island of Hiiumaa to see how people live on the islands. Excursions around the island and fun activities for free time will be provided. You will be given free time to ensure everyone can explore their surroundings in a pace of their choice.
