GEORGIA

Georgia is a country well-known and remembered for its picturesque sights and beautiful landscapes. Hike across its majestic mountains and terrains. Marvel in the beauty of its natural sulphur baths, ski in the mountains, and swim in the Black Sea.

The diversity of Georgia's attractions makes it one of the most loved places to visit in the world. Tbilisi is the capital and the largest city in Georgia, lying on the banks of the Kura River with a population of approximately 1.5 million people. It was founded in the 5th century AD by Vakhtang I. of Iberia, since then Tbilisi served as the capital of various Georgian kingdoms and republics.

CULTURE

The culture of Georgia has evolved over the country's long history, providing it with a unique national culture and a strong literary tradition based on the Georgian language and alphabet.

This has provided a strong sense of national identity that has helped to preserve Georgian distinctiveness despite repeated periods of foreign occupation.

FOOD

The Georgian cuisine is unique to the country, but also carries some influences from other Caucasian, Eastern European and nearby Middle Eastern culinary traditions. Each historical province of Georgia has its own distinct culinary tradition, with variations such as Megrelian, Kakhetian, and Imeretian cuisines. Rich with meat dishes, the Georgian cuisine also offers a variety of vegetarian dishes.
